4 online upskilling courses to boost your career

By Tamara Mafilika Jul 14, 2021

"THOSE who learn to evolve, adapt and drive change will be the ones leading the future of work. Upskilling gives you a competitive advantage because you might have a talent that is a scarce resource."

This is according to digital education company GetSmarter.

When organisations make it a priority to actively invest in their employees' learning and development, their levels of retention are high and employees are satisfied which in turn results in increased productivity.

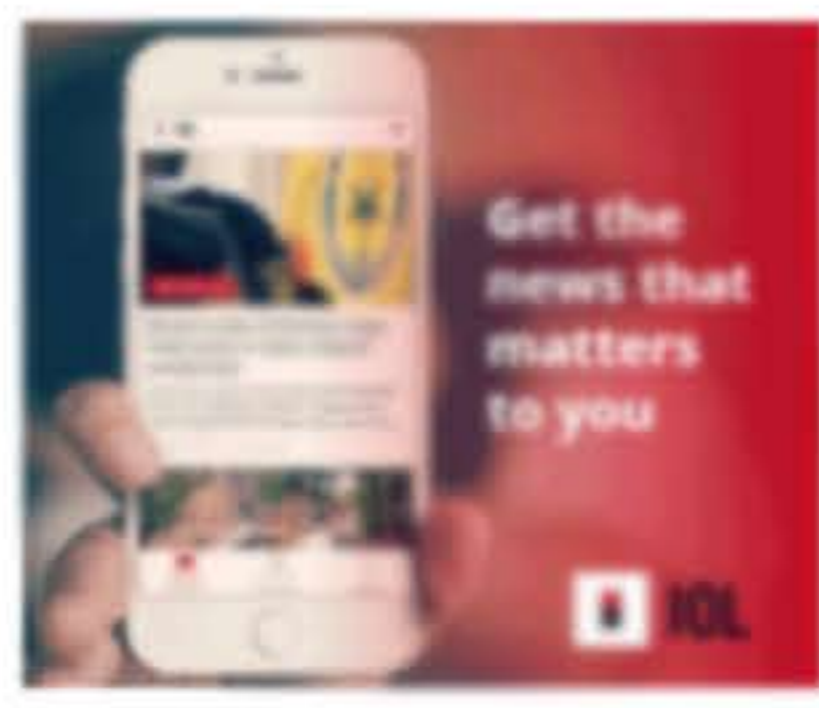

Thank you to technology learners and educators looking to improve their professional proficiency and gain relevance, can connect from different industries.

Here's all you need to know from the expert, Dr Malini Saba, founder and chairman, Saba Group & Anannke Foundation.
